FREED BY JURY, ROCHE CREATES SCENE IN COURT

Verdict of Not Guilty in the Handbook Case.

EVIDENCE FALLS FLAT

Accused Becomes Hysterical as He Is Acquitted.

Final Day of Trial Brings Out Many Challenges by Attorneys—Wilton J.
Lambert Denounces Police Department for Use of "Stool Pigeons." Given Gives Illustration to Deny Jubb Placed Money Behind Bar.

Sobbing like a child when he heard the verdict of "not guilty" pronounced by the foreman of the jury, Philip J. Roche, charged with conducting a handbook, yesterday created a dramatic scene in the Police Court. Springing to his feet, in spite of the efforts of attorneys and marshals to hold him, Roche, raising his right hand above his head, cried: "So help me God, I have never been guilty of keeping a handbook, and never will be. I thank God that I have been discharged and that my name is cleared."

ACQUITTED OF ALL.

The verdict was reached in three quarters of an hour. The foreman of the jury said, in scarcely audible tones, "On the first count we find the defendant not guilty; on the second count, not guilty; on the third count, not guilty; on the fourth count, not guilty; on the fifth count, not guilty. Mr. Roche seemed unable for a moment to realize the decision, and his breakdown came as a complete surprise after the stolid manner in which he has carried himself.

Going out into the hall Mr. Roche recognized two of the jurors and thanked them for the decision. The last days of trial brought out a number of challenges on the part of the attorneys.

On numerous occasions Wilton J.
Lambert, for the defense, interrupted Assistant District Attorney Ralph Given in his address to the jury with challenging statements. Mr. Lambert, in closing for the defense, attacked the police department for the employment of "stool pigeons" and said he could not see how Congress would appropriate any money at all for the maintenance of a police service using such evidence.

Compares Two Bars.

In closing for the government, Mr.
Given endeavored to refute the charge that a certain amount of money had been placed behind the bar of Roche's saloon. Mr. Given leaned over the bar until he almost overbalanced and asked the jury how Jubb could have reached the cash register.

The main proceeding yesterday was the summing up for both sides. The testimony of Jubb was the main issue and was referred to repeatedly. Several conflicting statements were made by witnesses for the prosecution. Mr. Lambert required a little over an hour to make his address to the jury. Mr. Given speaking for about forty-five minutes.
The jury left the court room at 2:45 o'clock and returned at 3:30.

REV. J. L. McMillan Called.

May Accept Pastorate of Rockville Presbyterian Church.

Rockville, Md., March 28.—The committee appointed by the congregation of the Rockville Presbyterian Church to select a pastor for the church has extended a unanimous call to Rev. J. L. McMillan, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Glen Head, Long Island.

The church has been without a regular pastor since the resignation of Rev. A.
W. Shaw, eighteen months ago.

To Chevy Chase and Kensington.

Visitors to Washington will enjoy a ride to Chevy Chase and Kensington.
This route passes the fashionable country clubs in full view of their new houses, also in view of the Connecticut avenue bridge, and the main entrance of the Zoological Park, and through the finest residential section of suburban Washington.

Through cars every quarter hour from Fifteenth street and New York avenue run direct to Chevy Chase Lake, where change is made for the Kensington line.
The latter trolley road runs across country on private right of way through a picturesque section, through Kensington to a high level with fine views of surrounding country.

Address by President Thirkield.

ACCUSED SLAYER ON TRIAL FOR LIFE

Officer Sears Relates Arrest of Antonio Sacchini.

Washington's Italian colony was well represented at the trial yesterday before Justice Wright of Antonio Sacchini, indicted on the charge of murdering Charles J. Chipman on December 31 last.

Policeman John E. Sears, who arrested Sacchini, related his experience on the night of the murder. He said he saw Sacchini going to the Philadelphia train gate at the Union Station, where he accused him.

Sears found a loaded revolver in Sacchini's coat pocket. The Italian, said Officer Sears, was not at all excited, and denied that he was the man the police was looking for.

Policeman Joseph E. Sears testified he identified Sacchini at the police station, that he did not deny his identity, and that in his pockets was found a loaded revolver, a ticket to Philadelphia, one pint of whiskey, and $13 in cash.

Justice Wright, upon motion of Prosecuting Attorney Turner, adjourned the case until this morning.

HURD'S SON ACCUSED.

Mrs. Laura Cramer Says He Made Threat Against Finance.

Mrs. Laura Cramer yesterday submitted testimony to the court claiming her marriage to Fenton J. Hurd was presented by a threat against Hurd's life.

It was Byron Hurd who threatened to kill the aged man, according to Mrs.
Cramer's allegation at the trial of the son of Dr. Lee M. Hurd, guardian and grandson of the alleged finance of Mrs.
Cramer, to compel the return of $25,000.

Fenton J. Hurd denied the alleged behavior between his grandfather and Mrs.
Cramer. He denied ever borrowing any money as claimed by Mrs. Cramer, who said that she loaned him $200.

CITY BEAUTIFUL IS THEME.

Fairchild and Brown Lecture at Big Citizens' Meeting.

Before a meeting of the North Washington, Brookland, Rhode Island Avenue, and Eckington Citizens' Association last night at the Church of the Advent, Glenn Brown, secretary of the American Association of Architects, delivered an illustrated lecture on "The development of Washington."

David Fairchild, president of the People's Garden Association, spoke on "The planting of shrubs and flowering plants in and around homes in Washington."

Mr. Brown explained the growth of the park movement, and Mr. Fairchild advocated the beautification of lawns and yards by the growth of plants and shrubs.

Views of lawns and gardens in Southern England and plans for the enlargement of the Washington park system were shown on the screen.

At a luncheon meeting the North Washington Citizens' Association passed resolutions subscribing $50 to the George Washington Memorial, endorsing the project to preserve the old Treasury pillars and erect them in Potomac Park, and recommending the government purchase the old Fort Stevens property and convert it into a national park.

PRINTER FOUND DEAD.

Henry Wassenberg Loses Life in Gas-filled Room.

Henry Wassenberg, a printer, forty years old, was found dead yesterday morning in a room on the second floor of the lodging house at 624 Pennsylvania avenue. Death was caused by asphyxiation, which is believed to have been accidental.

Wassenberg went to the house Monday night and left a call for 6:30 o'clock in the morning. When Morris Auer-back, the clerk, went to call him he got no response. He broke down the door, and found Wassenberg dead. Wass-enberg had been employed on various newspapers of the city.
